

Last year, the inaugural Edinburgh Award was presented to city resident author Ian Rankin. The Edinburgh Award was established to recognise an individual's outstanding achievements and contribution to the city of Edinburgh. Nominations are now open for The Edinburgh Award 2008. You are invited to vote for who you think meets the following criteria and deserves The Edinburgh Award 2008.

In the last 12 months the nominee has;

- Made an impact to the City by their contribution to the world of science, culture, sports, business, technology, charity or education
- Gained positive media attention for Edinburgh as a result of their work
- Continuously demonstrated the values of Edinburgh Inspiring Capital
- Contributed to an increase in tourism, business, education or overall awareness as a result of their work
- Was born in Edinburgh or resided in the City for the past 12 months
- Has not previously been awarded The Freedom of the City of Edinburgh
- Is not a previous winner of The Edinburgh Award
- Is not a serving politician

Please complete the nomination form on reverse and return to

The Edinburgh Award
The Lord Provost Office
City of Edinburgh Council
City Chambers
High Street
Edinburgh EH1 1YJ

by 18th March 2008

Nomination Form

Name of your nominee.....

How has this person made a positive impact on the city of Edinburgh through their work/community?

.....
.....
.....

How has this person gained positive media attention for Edinburgh?

.....
.....
.....

How has this person made an impact on tourism figures, enterprise initiatives, educational awareness or overall recognition of Edinburgh?

.....
.....
.....

Your Name:

Tel:

Address:.....
.....

*Exclusions – Nominees must meet the following criteria:

- Was born in Edinburgh or resided in the City for the past 12 months
- Has not previously been awarded The Freedom of the City of Edinburgh
- Is not a previous winner of The Edinburgh Award
- Is not a serving politician

Please return form by 18th March 2008 to:

The Edinburgh Award
The Lord Provost Office
City of Edinburgh Council
City Chambers
High Street
Edinburgh EH1 1YJ