PRIVACY NOTICE

Civic & Miscellaneous Licences

What information do we need?

City of Edinburgh Council will act as the 'Data Controller' for the personal data you provide to us. The Data Protection Officer, who is responsible for ensuring personal data is managed in accordance with data protection legislation, can be contacted as follows:

Kevin Wilbrahim,
Information Governance Unit
City of Edinburgh Council
Waverley Court – 2.1
4 East Market Street
Edinburgh
EH8 8BG

Email: Information.compliance@edinburgh.gov.uk

Telephone: 0131 469 6200

Information held about you

The information we collect from you will include details such as your name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, date and place of birth, national insurance number, unique tax reference number and your immigration status

For the purposes of this specific service, the personal data we may require includes special category information about you (also known as 'sensitive personal data'), specifically health information (Taxi & Private Hire driver Licences), nationality and immigration status.

In addition, we may also require details of any previous criminal convictions and previous licence information.

Why do we need this information?

Your information is being collected to City of Edinburgh Council to administer the process of applying for licences and permits under the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 and Miscellaneous Licensing Acts

We need to know the personal data requested on the application form in order to provide this service to you. If you do not provide this information then we will be unable to process your request for a licence or permit. We will not collect any personal data from you that isn't needed for this purpose.

The lawful basis for processing your information in these circumstances is:

- Compliance with legal obligation
- Performance of a task carried out in the public

City of Edinburgh Council is required to collect your information in order to carry out the function of providing licences in relation to the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 and Miscellaneous Licensing Acts, which is a statutory function of a local authority.

Where we collect special category data (for taxi driver or private hire driver licence applications) this processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest and is authorised by Scottish or UK Law.

What will we do with your information?

We will use your information to process your application for a licence and issue documentation in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 and Miscellaneous Licensing Acts. Depending on the type of licence, this will involve sharing your information as shown in the table below.

Notices of applications may be provided to the relevant Community Council, Library and relevant Ward Councilors, and will include basic information about the applicant and some detail about the application (i.e. location(s) for a street trader licence). Notices provided to Libraries are open to public inspection. No special category data is included in the notice.

Applications where valid objections or representations are made will be considered at meetings of the Licensing sub committee, which are open to the public. We are also required to publish information in licensing registers, which will include your name, type of licence, vehicle registration number (for Taxi and PHC vehicles), decision, licence start and end dates.

When you do not provide information directly to us, we may receive it from other relevant organisations including other Council services, other Local Authorities or Police Scotland.

You should also be aware that your data will be stored on servers located within the United Kingdom. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your data is kept secure and more information on how we do this can be provided by contacting the Data Protection Officer.

How long will we keep your information?

We will keep your information for the length of time specified within our document retention schedules, and after this period it will be destroyed under secure arrangements. All documentation relating to licences under the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 will be kept for a maximum of 2 years from the date the licence expires. More information on our retention policy and procedure can be obtained from the Data Protection Officer if required.

Automated Decision Making

No automated decision making will take place.

Your Rights

When you provide information to the Council, you will have the following rights:

- to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office – see below for details
- to request access to your personal data – please contact the Data Protection Officer if you wish to submit a request.
- to request rectification or erasure of your personal data, as far as the legislation permits – please contact the Data Protection Officer and provide details of what data you wish to be rectified or erased.

As the Council does not rely on your consent to provide the lawful condition of processing your data in your licence application, you do not have the right to withdraw your consent to our processing of your application or to ask us to transfer your data to another data controller

You can find out more about your rights in relation to data protection here: www.edinburgh.gov.uk/dataprotection or from the Data Protection Officer by telephone or in writing, as detailed above.
