

Pupil Privacy Notice – Education

Introduction

We need to use some information about you to help you learn, keep you safe, and make sure our school runs well.

What personal data do we collect?

We collect things like:

- Your name, birthday, and where you live.
- How often you come to school and how you're doing in your learning.
- Information to keep you safe, like who to call if you need help.

Why do we need this information?

We use this information to:

- Help you learn and do your best.
- Keep you safe and healthy.
- Follow the rules all schools have to follow.

Who do we share your information with?

Sometimes, we share your information with other people, like:

- Your parents or carers.
- Other schools or teachers if you move.
- People who help keep you safe or make sure we're following the rules.

Your rights

You can ask us to show you what information we have about you, and if something is wrong, we'll fix it.

If you have questions, ask a teacher, or an adult at home can talk to us.

You can see the full Education Privacy Notice on our website.
